St. Patrick's Cathedral Choir, directed by Dr. Jennifer Pascual, is predominantly a liturgical choir, and the heart of the music program at North America's most prominent Roman Catholic cathedral.

Acclaimed former music directors in the cathedral's 140-year history include Pietro Yon and Charles Courboin. Established in its present form by John Grady in the 1980's, the St. Patrick's Cathedral Choir is made up of volunteer and professional singers and prepares music from every era for many liturgies and other special events throughout the year. These include the 10:15am Mass each Sunday (from the first Sunday after Labor Day until the Solemnity of Corpus Christi), Holy Week liturgies, St. Patrick's Day Mass, the annual A City Singing at Christmas and Irish Heritage concerts, and the nationally broadcast Midnight Mass from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

In its liturgical role, the St. Patrick's Cathedral Choir has performed for many heads of state and the Secretary General of the United Nations. In 1965, the choir had the distinct honor of singing for His Holiness, Pope Paul VI at St. Patrick's Cathedral during the historic, first-ever Papal Visit to the United States. In 1979, the choir sang for His Holiness, Pope John Paul II at St. Patrick's Cathedral as well as for Mass at Yankee Stadium.

The choir sang again for Pope John Paul II in October 1995 for Mass in Central Park and the recitation of the Rosary at St. Patrick's Cathedral. During the April 2008 Pastoral Visit to New York by His Holiness, Pope Benedict XVI, the choir sang for Masses at St. Patrick's Cathedral and Yankee Stadium and for an Ecumenical Prayer Service. They sang for Evening Prayer at St. Patrick's Cathedral and Mass at Madison Square Garden during the September 2015 Pastoral Visit to New York by His Holiness, Pope Francis.

With the founding of the Friends of Music in the 1990's under John-Michael Caprio, the St. Patrick's Cathedral Choir expanded its concert activities and has performed with the Vienna Symphony Orchestra, Wroclaw Philharmonic, members of the Vienna Philharmonic on PBS, the New York Philharmonic under Leonard Bernstein, at events for the Richard Tucker Music Foundation, and with soloists such as Renée Fleming and Placido Domingo.

Upon special invitation, in May 2008, the St. Patrick's Cathedral Choir had the distinguished honor of performing for President George W. Bush at The White House for the National Day of Prayer.

In October 2010, they traveled to Rome and Vatican City as the only choir from the United States invited to participate in the IX Festivale Internazionale di Musica e Arte Sacra where they also performed for Pope Benedict XVI. Some members of the choir returned to the Vatican to join with the Capella Sistina in Rome during the 2012 consistory in which His Eminence, Timothy M. Cardinal Dolan was created a cardinal.

The choir had the privilege to return to Washington, D.C. in 2016 to performing on the Millennium Stage of The Kennedy Center for Ireland 100: Celebrating a Century of Irish Arts & Culture. In May 2017, the St. Patrick's Cathedral participated in the New York Chorus Festival at Carnegie Hall to benefit Japanese Fukushima victims.

For years, the Friends of Music has supported the music ministry here at St. Patrick's Cathedral. Thanks to their generosity, we are able to offer wonderful concerts throughout the year.

Please consider supporting the Friends of Music at St. Patrick's Cathedral for the upcoming 2020-2021 season.

Contributions made to Friends of Music are used exclusively to support the non-liturgical music programs at St. Patrick's Cathedral including the Concert Series, the Guest Choir Concert Series, and the Kilgen Organ Recital Series.

It is only through the continued support of the Friends of Music that these series and their inspiring music are possible. Each gesture of support enables us to continue producing concerts of high-quality music in this majestic space. Every year we must raise the funds needed to cover the operating expenses, since there is not an endowment to support this program and other programs of the Cathedral.

Support the Friends of Music for the season and be a part of our music history!
