Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, all say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

A New Mass for Congregations
Carroll T. Andrews
arr. James Biery

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'n-ly King, O God, al-might-y Fa-ther.

Lord Je-sus Christ, On-ly Be-got-ten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God,

Son of the Fa-ther, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us; you take a-way the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther, have mer-cy on us.

For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord,

You a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Hol-ly Spir-it, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

Peter proceeded to speak and said:
“You know what has happened all over Judea,
beginning in Galilee after the baptism
that John preached,
how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power.
He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil,
for God was with him.
We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.
They put him to death by hanging him on a tree.
This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible,
not to all the people, but to us,
the witnesses chosen by God in advance,
who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.
To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.
Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”
“The right hand of the LORD has struck with power;
the right hand of the LORD is exalted.
I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.”

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

SECOND READING

Brothers and sisters:
If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above,
where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.
Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.
For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
When Christ your life appears,
then you too will appear with him in glory.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

or

Brothers and sisters:
Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough?
Clear out the old yeast,
so that you may become a fresh batch of dough,
inasmuch as you are unleavened.
For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed.
Therefore, let us celebrate the feast,
not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice
and wickedness,
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
ACCLAMATION BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Christians, to the Paschal Victim Offer your thankful praises!
A Lamb the sheep redeems; Christ, who only is sinless, Reconciles sinners to the Father.
Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:
The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.
Speak, Mary, declaring What you saw, wayfaring.
‘The tomb of Christ, who is living, The glory of Jesus’ resurrection;
Bright angels attesting, The shroud and napkin resting.
Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; To Galilee he goes before you.’
Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

On the first day of the week,
Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,
while it was still dark,
and saw the stone removed from the tomb.
So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved,
and told them,
“They have taken the Lord from the tomb,
and we don’t know where they put him.”
So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb.
They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first;
he bent down and saw the burial cloths there,
but did not go in.
When Simon Peter arrived after him,
he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there,
and the cloth that had covered his head,
not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.
Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

   Sons of men and angels say!
   Raise your joys and triumphs high,

   Where, O death, is now thy sting?
   Once he died our souls to save,
   Where thy victory O grave?

3. Love’s redeeming work is done,
   Fought the fight, the battle won.
   Death in vain for bids him rise;

Communion
An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

“The Strife Is O’er”
VICTORY

Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia!

1. The strife is o’er, the battle done;
2. Death’s mightiest pow’rs have done their worst,
3. He closed the yawning gates of hell;
4. On the third morn he rose again,
5. Lord, by the stripes that wound thee,

Now is the Victor’s triumph won;
And Jesus has his foes dispersed;
The bars from heaven’s high portals fell;
Glorious in majesty to reign;
From death’s dread sting thy servants free,
That we may

song of praise be sung:
praise and joy outburst:
praise his triumph tell:
swell the joyful strain:
live and sing to thee:

Alleluia!
